TENNESSEE politicians are still all at sea as to whether Turley or McMillin will be appointed Senator.

National Democratic Speakers.

The Louisville Post says: "The sound money Democrats are preparing for a vigorous campaign, and Chairman Carroll has received assurance from ex-Secretary Carlisle, Senator Lindsay and Col. Breckinridge that they will make many speeches in Kentucky during the campaign. Among the other speakers who will help the cause of sound money and an honest Democracy are the Hon. R. T. Tyler, the Hon. J. C. Speight, the Hon. J. K. Hendrick, the Hon. Henry Burnett, the Hon. John F. Lookett, former Congressman A. B. Montgomery, the Hon. J. C. Sims, the Hon. Wilbur F. Browder, the Hon. Zach Phelps, Col. Thomas W. Bullitt, the Hon. E. J. McDermitt, the Hon. Boyd Winchester, Senator W. W. Stephenson, Col. E. H. Gaither, the Hon. Chas. Rhodes, Judge J. Q. Ward, the Hon. J. A. Violet, Judge Thos. H. Hines, the Hon. W. W. Dickerson, Senator R. H. E. Linton, Judge Chas. J. Helm, the Hon. A. G. DeJarnette, the Hon. Cassius M. Clay, Jr., the Hon. M. C. Swinford, Prof. Arthur Yager, Senator Henry L. Martin, the Hon. Nelson H. Trimble, Col. H. P. Thompson, Judge Alex. P. Humphrey, and many others."

National Democratic Platform.

The following is the text of the platform adopted last Thursday at the convention of National Democrats, in Louisville:

THE PLATFORM.
The National Democracy of Kentucky, in convention assembled, cordially approve the action taken last year resulting in the Indianapolis convention, the nomination of Palmer and Beckner and the complete organization and perpetuation of the Democratic party, not only for that campaign, but for all time; and with equal cordiality endorse the platform of principles announced by the Louisville convention of 1896, and the platform adopted at Indianapolis; and reaffirm our hearty allegiance to the principles and policies therein expressed, and declare they are in accordance with the Democratic platforms adopted by the various preceding national conventions, which platform we hereby adopt, and by which we stand.

We reaffirm, as the pledge of the Democratic party, that when entrusted with federal power, it will enact such tax laws as will produce sufficient revenue, and framed for revenue only, levying necessary taxes only, and with impartiality and without bounties, bonuses or favors; will reform the currency laws so as to maintain the standard of the world, and furnish a sound, stable and sufficient currency of gold and silver, interchangeable with each other at equal commercial value; will regain, with suitable revenue and navigation laws, the supremacy of the seas; enforce a proper civil service system, preserve the public order; maintain the public peace and protect the rights, liberties and property of the citizens by such means as may be necessary, at home and abroad.

We denounce the free and unlimited coinage of silver as inevitably producing silver monometallism, and we do advocate a gold standard and the coinage of silver to the requirements of commerce as offering the only means of maintaining bimetallicism, and denounce any attempt to fix the ratio between the metals arbitrary by law without reference to their commercial value as unsafe and dangerous to public welfare and private interests.

The Democrats of Kentucky renew their allegiance to the principles of true Democracy as exemplified by the administration of Grover Cleveland and as illustrated by his eminent secretary of the treasury, John G. Carlisle, and pledge themselves to renew an unceasing effort to embody and substantiate them in the national policy.

The public order is the basis of the public credit. The Democrats of Kentucky who have renewed their allegiance to the credit of the nation as proclaimed by the Indianapolis platform take this occasion to declare their devotion to the public order in the nation and in the state.

They denounce lawlessness of every kind wherever it appears; whether at the hands of mobs usurping the functions of the courts or of masked marauders intimidating peaceful citizens, assailing the property of the people, menacing the public highways or otherwise endangering the peace of society.

We pledge ourselves to use every effort to restore the supremacy of law and to punish those who violate the laws; and we call upon all honest and patriotic men to join with us in this first duty of good Democrats and good citizens.

Correspondence from Estill.

Always lovely and home like, Estill Springs were never more beautiful than at present, not were they ever better managed than by Capt. J. M. Thomas and Mr. R. L. Thomas. The hotel—capacious, cool and pleasant—with its magnificent ball room, broad piazzas, bowling alley, bath house, and the healthful mineral waters, is indeed an ideal place to rest and recuperate, and guests never lack for attention. The scenery around Estill is picturesque, the towering mountains, the grand forests, and winding drives around Kentucky river constituting a grand panorama made by Nature. The Estill mineral waters are conducive to health, and the mountain air is invigorating—bringing one by day an appetite for the excellent fare at the hotel and by night restful sleep.

The social diversions at Estill are boating on Kentucky river, bowling, tennis, driving, climbing the mountains, and dancing. The ball room at Estill is magnificent and a splendid orchestra furnishes inspiring music for those who care to dance. The moon-lit piazzas are inviting for promenades at eventide, and the serpentine walk to the chalet de spring is a picturesque stroll by day. The "proposition log" continues to be a feature at this lovely dell. 'Tis said that when man and maid sit together on this log a proposal is sure to result. I can testify that it is a most romantic spot, and it is related that it is responsible for no less than fifty marriages.

Among the late arrivals at Estill are: Mrs. Laura Taylor, Miss Susan Miller, Dr. Nelson Prewitt, L. H. Bush, of Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Sayre, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Strader, Misses Virginia Lyle, Nancy Lyle, Katherine Clark, Mamie Clark, Rida Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Pettit, W. L. Bybee, and the Misses Courtney, Lexington; Mrs. M. B. Tucker, T. K. Helm, Mrs. J. C. Barnett, Miss Elise Barnett, Gilbert Barnett, Theodore Barnett, Louisville; John C. Chenaunt, A. D. Miller, R. H. Zaring, Richmond; J. L. Ashbaugh, Cincinnati; Miss Daisy Neely, Chattanooga; Sam'l B. Halley, Miss Mary Belle Halley, Payne's Depot; Miss Evelyn Craig, Georgetown; John S. Smith, J. G. Craddock, Wm. Remington, R. W. O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas and children, and Walter Champ, Paris; Miss May Benjamin, Arkansas; J. R. Downing, Georgetown; W. T. Beckham, H. P. Poynter, Shelbyville; C. W. Bart, Lansing, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Saffell, Frankfort; J. Bates, Joe Harris, Nicholasville; D. Woolums, Richmond; and others.

The company at Estill is especially attractive, the tastefully gowned ladies being fair of face and winsome of manner, representing well known families of the Bluegrass. The gentlemen are agreeable and gallant thus making the social feature of the Springs very pleasant.

Sunday was spent quietly at Estill. The guests, mingling like members of a large family, gathered in the parlor and sang sacred music and familiar ballads. As the notes of "Our Old Kentucky Home" echoed through the spacious halls I wondered if the sun shines on a lovelier, dearer country. Some writer once said that God could have made a better berry than the strawberry but He never did, so I thought He could have made a prettier country than old Kentucky—but He didn't. And Estill is one of the prettiest places in the Bluegrass State. W. C.

Growing Children

One-third of all the children die before they are five years old. Most of them die of some wasting disease. They grow very slowly; keep thin in flesh; are fretful; food does not do them much good. You can't say they have any disease, yet they never prosper. A slight cold, or some stomach and bowel trouble takes them away easily.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites is just the remedy for growing children. It makes hard flesh; sound flesh; not soft, flabby fat. It makes strong bones, healthy nerves. It changes poor children to children rich in prosperity.

Book about it free for the asking. No substitute for Scott's Emulsion will do for the children what we know Scott's Emulsion will do. Get the genuine. For sale by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

SCINTILLATIONS.

An Interesting Jumble of News and Comment.

There will be no fair at Danville this year.

The Lancaster fair last week was largely attended.

The Falmouth Guards have been mustered out of service.

A New York Central passenger train ran 148 miles in 138 minutes.

A telephone line may be built between Flemingsburg and Sharpsburg.

Look out for counterfeit $2 bills. A number of them are said to be in circulation in Kentucky.

The Kentucky school per capita has been fixed at $2.20 for 1897, which is the same as the per capita for 1896.

The Warren County Teachers' Institute adopted a strong resolution condemning the Republican State administration for reducing the school fund.

The camp-grounds at High Bridge are being put in condition for the meeting, which begins Friday. Among the attractions this year will be Dr. Talmage and B. Fay Mills.

The headless body of "Aunt" Fanny Davis was found in a sack under a straw stack near Danville. She was 104 years old and died five years ago. Her body was taken up by body-snatchers.

It is estimated that $6,000,000 were spent at Christian Endeavor Convention at San Francisco, the Baptist Young People at Chattanooga and the Epworth League at Toronto.

The Fayette Fiscal Court has decided to rebuild the Lexington Court-house after the same style of architecture, and just as it was when burned. The insurance will almost cover the cost of reconstruction.

Maj. A. D. Reynolds, of Bristol, Tenn., who has made a fortune out of manufactured tobacco, has suddenly come to the conclusion that it conflicts with his religious views and has sold out.

THE DANGER

to which the Expectant Mother is exposed and the foreboding and dread with which she looks forward to the hour of woman's severest trial is appreciated by but few. All effort should be made to smooth these rugged places in life's pathway for her, ere she presses to her bosom her babe.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

allays Nervousness, and so assists Nature that the change goes forward in an easy manner, without such violent protest in the way of Nausea, Headache, Etc. Gloomy forebodings yield to cheerful and hopeful anticipations—she passes through the ordeal quickly and without pain—is left strong and vigorous and enabled to joyously perform the high and holy duties now devolved upon her. Safety to life of both is assured by the use of "Mother's Friend," and the time of recovery shortened.

"I know one lady, the mother of three children, who suffered greatly in the birth of each, who obtained a bottle of 'Mother's Friend' of me before her fourth confinement, and was relieved quickly and easily. All agree that their labor was shorter and less painful."

Will Not Perform Miracles But It Will Cure.

DR. MILES' RESTORATIVE NERVINE cures nervous prostration. Not miraculously, but scientifically, by first removing the germs of disease, and then supplying healthy nerve food, increasing the appetite, helping digestion and strengthening the entire system. Desperate cases require prolonged treatment as shown by that of Mrs. M. B. Reed, of Delta, Iowa, who writes: "As the result of a lightning stroke, the physicians said I had a light stroke of paralysis, my limbs would all draw up. I would have throbbings in my chest that seemed unendurable. For three months I could not sleep and for three weeks did not close my eyes. I prayed for sleep, and felt that if relief did not come I would be dead or insane. I took Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and the second night slept two hours and from that time on my health improved; slowly at first, but steadily and surely. I took in all 40 bottles, and I cannot express how grateful I am, for I am now perfectly well, and have taken no medicine for over four months." Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold by druggists on guarantee that first bottle benefits or money refunded.

Book on heart and nerves free. Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
